

Open Position – Figure skating coach at Trondhjems Skoiteklub

Trondhjems Skoiteklub (TSK) was established in 1876 and Norway's first figure skating champion, Johan Lefstad, was a member of TSK. Currently, TSK figure skating has more than 50 competitive skaters, more than 120 kids attending Skating School, and a youth and adult group. Overall, TSK's skaters cover all skill levels, from beginner to international levels. The club currently employs a team of two senior coaches and five junior coaches; we are looking for a third senior coach in a 50%-80% position. See <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Ar5f4VLfeoY>.

What we are looking for:

- You are a skilled and experienced coach.
- You work with skaters to identify their figure skating goals and develop plans to help the skaters reach these goals.
- You have experience and formal training as a figure skating coach, preferably with documented results.
- You have experience in coaching groups.
- You can coach skaters at all levels.
- You are motivated by working in a team with other coaches.
- You share your knowledge and skills to develop and improve the team.
- You see each skater and can motivate and bring out their best, regardless of their level.
- You develop skaters through constructive feedback.
- You speak English or Norwegian, Swedish, or Danish.
- You adhere to the ethical guidelines of the Norwegian Skating Federation.

Your main tasks:

- Coach skaters both on and off ice, according to the club's schedule.
- Be the main responsible coach for one or more groups of skaters.
- Plan training sessions and coordinate your plans with other coaches sharing the ice.
- Work with the coaching team to plan the next season's schedule.
- Prepare skaters for competitions.
- Develop and adjust the skaters' programs.
- Travel and follow up skaters at competitions.
- Travel and follow up skaters at events and camps organized by the Norwegian Skating Federation.
- Develop individually tailored plans to help the skaters improve and work towards their goals for the next season.

What we offer:

- Athletes and coaching team with a passion for figure skating.
- Good working conditions and benefits.
- A well organized and financially sound club.
- A board with a strong belief in development through dedication and teamwork.

Submit your application together with your CV to kunstlop@tskskoyter.no.